

Queen of Hearts

“Drawing from their diverse roots across, Mexico, Chile, Colombia and Australia, the band takes a fresh, multicultural approach to mariachi, fusing contemporary elements like jazz, pop and rock while honouring mariachi tradition.”

— Rolling Stone AU/NZ

BIO

Queen of Hearts is an all-female band redefining mariachi through original music and bold cross-genre experimentation. Drawing inspiration from mariachi traditions, they fuse powerful vocal harmonies with elements of folk, pop, and blues - crafting a fresh, emotionally rich sound that resonates across cultures.

Founded by musician Elizabeth Obando, the group features Bonnie Smith, Rose Kavanagh, Vanessa Estrada, and Sarah Camm - a dynamic collective of artists whose songwriting and storytelling reflect resilience, sisterhood, and deep creative chemistry.

Known for their captivating live performances, flamboyant costumes, and genre-bending arrangements, Queen of Hearts has become a standout act on Australia's festival circuit. In 2025, they released their second studio album Divina, a collection of original songs praised for their authenticity, depth, and vibrant energy.

Recently featured in Rolling Stone AU/NZ and celebrated as a highlight of the 2025 National Folk Festival, Queen of Hearts continues to push boundaries and uplift audiences through music that is heartfelt, fearless, and entirely their own.
