

OLIVIA BRASIL

PRESS KIT

Olivia Brasil is an emerging Brazilian singer-songwriter, guitarist and poet, who has been calling Naarm home since 2024. Blending the rhythms of her homeland with shades of jazz, disco and rock, her music carries the warmth of Brazil while opening new paths in a fresh landscape. Her upcoming singles and debut EP explore themes of transformation, the experience of living abroad, and the wonder of encountering the new.

Since arriving in Melbourne, Olivia has already made her mark with performances at the Sleepless Footscray Festival (2025) and the Flight Festival (2025), presented by The Boîte. She also brings her artistry to the stage with her band No Dessert (alongside Soph Sudds and Miguel Palmeira), performing at beloved local venues such as Merri Creek Tavern, Bell City Takeaway and Bar 303, as well as community fundraisers.

With her lyrical poetry and a soft yet soulful voice, Olivia weaves Brazilian roots into her style, creating moments of intimacy and connection that resonate wherever she performs.
